

SELF-HELP REASSURANCE FORM

Applicant Name
Indian Reservation Where Applicant Resides

Nationwide is considering purchasing or underwriting a contract for the applicant named above. Under Nationwide's credit policy, residency on an Indian Reservation is not a basis for denying a loan application, provided that the Reservation permits self-help repossession of collateral vehicles in the event of a loan default. To that end, Nationwide provides this form to determine whether the laws of the Indian Reservation named above permit self-help repossession of automobiles, either pursuant to the Reservation's adoption of the Uniform Commercial Code or some other basis. By signing below, you acknowledge that you have legal authority to act on behalf of the Indian Reservation named above.

Does the Indian Reservation named above permit self-help repossession of automobiles?
