You certify that the foregoing statements are true and complete and made for the purpose of determining your eligibility for credit. You agree that this application shall remain our and our assignees' property, whether or not credit is extended. We and our assignees are authorized to make all inquiries we deem necessary to verify the accuracy of the statements made herein, and to determine your creditworthiness by obtaining consumer reports from consumer reporting agencies and credit information from others, including financial institutions, extenders of credit, references, present and former employers, merchants, landlords and creditors. You agree that we and our assignees may contact you in writing, by e-mail, or using prerecorded/artificial voice messages, text messages, and automatic telephone dialing systems, as the law allows. You also agree that we and our assignees may contact you in these and other ways at any address or telephone number you provide us, even if the telephone number is a cell phone number or the contact results in a charge to you. Pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, you are notified that your credit application may be submitted to Nationwide (or one of Nationwide's affiliates) for consideration for the extension of credit.

Your privacy is important to us. You may obtain a copy of the Nationwide Privacy Policy by calling us at 800-622-7605 or by going to the Nationwide website www.nationwideloans.com.

California: If married, you may apply for credit separately as an individual.

Ohio: The Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio civil rights commission administers compliance with this law.

Wisconsin: No provision of a marital property agreement, a unilateral statement under Wis. Stat. 766.59, or a court decree under Wis. Stat. 766.70 adversely affects our interest unless you furnish a copy of such agreement, statement, or decree to us prior to the time credit is granted or we have actual knowledge of such adverse provision when your obligation to us is incurred.
